

Dear Mr. Lou,

Thank you for visiting my school. You taught me so many things. Now I can't wait to visit the library and see how the stories you told the 6th graders about End. I hope you come back next year to teach about the stories again because I enjoyed your presentation very much. I am almost positive that everybody liked it as much as I did. Once again I thank you for coming and I hope you come back next year to teach the new sixth graders.

Sincerely,
Alyssa
